“ Nancy. Very sorry for the loss of your mother. She was a delight. Visited with her many times at Kroger while I worked there. She always made me smile and remember growing up with you and our old neighborhood. An old friend. Duane Dawdy.

“ So sorry for your loss, I loved your Mom and going by to visit her. My favorite memory was going to the cabin and spending night with you, fishing in the river, riding in the boat, I remember having a great tim. Alice always made you feel special and loved her silly jokes!

“ I am saddened to hear of her passing. My fondest memories were from my childhood. Alice was a good friend to my mother, Virginia and my grandma Ida who lived on the same block of homes.
I recall many times stopping by with mom to visit and coffee. I was rarely involved in the adult conversation, but always remember that mom left her visits in a better way than when she came.
Alice was always cheering people with her smile and encouraging way. I know that my family was just one of the many that she blessed just by being known.
Looking back on influential people that had a positive impact on me, Alice was definitely one of them.

“ I have a lot of fond memories of this woman. One that stands out may seem like a bit of a joke. It was way back when Nancy was still living at home. Nancy and I were going to walk uptown for some reason. Alice insisted that I put my shoes on. Being the little roughneck that I was I protested. She finally gave in and said okay, but warned me that if I stepped on any glass with my bare feet she was going to give me a good whoopin'. Well guess what happened? I stepped on a piece of glass and got a whoopin'. She was a woman of her word. I am going to miss her.
