“ I remember running into her and Rosie when she was getting ready for prom, she was so excited, showed me a picture of her dress and was so excited. Such a bright light and beautiful soul. I am so blessed to have known such a Angel and now she has her wings.

“ Toni (I never got used to calling her Antonia after all the years of Toni) was always ready to lend a hand, or to offer a smile or a hug. Like everyone, she had her rough days, but that never stopped from jumping in to help someone else. She was a good student, a great friend, an avid reader, a budding writer and someone I enjoyed knowing throughout her school years. She will be missed by many.
