“ Sorry to hear of Sonny's passing, he was a good man and coworker. I worked with him at Mason's Market, he always had something to say, enjoyed are many chats. He was the only one at work that called me Susan for years ,and got by with it I never corrected him guess he liked to call me Susan. He will be sadly missed, deepest sympathy to his wife and family

“ I worked with Sonny at Searches IGA tore in White Hall. Shared many of stories with him. He helped me as a young man to learn the business and guided me along. He was a great person... I have and will never forget him. RIP my friend.

“ I had the pleasure of working with Sonny years ago when I was a young man. I learned a lot from Sonny. Everyday it seemed he would teach me a lesson about something and it was always in the form of a story, and oftentimes something funny. Every Christmas we would spend our time making elaborate fruit baskets and delivering groceries around the town of White Hall. We used to spend time during the summer and early fall building a produce display out in front of the store. He is an important person to me and meant a lot to me. To this day I tell my children stories to teach them about the way of the world and about what's in the hearts of men. Sonny had wit. When it would get quiet in the back room of the store he would let out a yell in German and keep right on working. He would often wear a straw hat. I had the pleasure because of a story I shared on Facebook to reconnect with Sonny about two years ago. It was the story he told me a few times about a commanding officer and tanks lined up in a row. It was a marvelous story and I still tell it to this day. I am glad someone told him about it and that he understood the impact he had on me and my life. I sure enjoyed visiting with him again.
