Dianne loved cooking, reading, gardening, playing games on her iPad and taking care of her family. On her 70th Birthday she decided that she had earned the right to stop filtering her words. That was a good thing because you never knew what she might say. When diagnosed with stage four pancreatic cancer, she never lost her faith and continued to smile and enjoy life until the day she passed.

Dianne requested to omit funeral services. The family wishes to thank White Hall Nursing and Rehabilitation Center with all of their help assisting Dianne to live out her life in comfort and surrounded by friendly and familiar faces. Dianne especially appreciated getting her hair and nails done and the ice cream they provided her for breakfast, lunch and dinner. Memorial donations may be sent to White Hall Nursing and Rehabilitation Center in care of Mackey Daws Funeral Home 508 W. Vandalia Rd. Jacksonville, IL 62650.
