

James Kerr Ballard

March 29, 2010 - July 13, 2021

James "Kerr" Ballard was a gift from God sent to Wes and Lori Ballard on March 29, 2010. Kerr had a larger-than-life personality and an old soul. This unique combination manifested in friendships of all ages. It's also fair to mention that he never met a stranger and enjoyed conversing with everyone. He packed more life experiences into eleven years than most pack into fifty years. He also packed as many pancakes on his morning breakfast plate as his mom would let him get away with, which is how he became known as the pancake eating machine. Kerr was his mom's dream and his dad's best friend.

Kerr had a tremendous belief in God and was not afraid to share God's message. He was a confident disciple in the Lord and it was his goal to lead everyone he met to Jesus. During COVID-19 when churches were asked not to hold Sunday service in-person, Kerr took it upon himself to deliver online messages from his mom's Facebook page.

Kerr loved and cherished his entire family and was the quintessential big brother to his adoring sister Ruby. One of his favorite activities was going to Rutledge where he could always negotiate a fine deal. A most noteworthy deal was one he made for his sister Ruby's Christmas gift, a very special rock. His many cousins were like siblings. He loved to be doing any activity indoor or outdoor with his cousins and friends. In fact, one of his favorite activities was playing Fortnite into the wee hours with his cousin. Kerr also loved to travel. He enjoyed daytrips to The Ranch, weekend trips to Lake of the Ozarks and family trips to Dauphin Island and Captiva Island. He had a thing for water, sand, sun and a ton of fun.

As much as he loved to play he also loved to work. Kerr could often be found assisting his dad in the machine shop on their family farm, a place he loved immeasurably. He was his dad's best friend and tinkering together was their favorite. He was also known to work on broken-down equipment at Ballard Brothers Concrete or work as his Papa Randy's second-hand-man for any project--large or small. Kerr considered himself part of Roger Strang's auctioneer team and looked forward to receiving his Christmas bonus in the mail sent from Roger each year.

Many pillars of strength both on earth and in heaven have helped bolster the family during this time. The family has been surrounded by Kerr's Paternal Grandparents Jim and Lyn Anne Ballard and Maternal Grandparents Randy and Rhonda Wahl. Paternal Great Grandmother Dolores Harp and Maternal Great Grandparents Don and Shelby Pence. The Manchester Baptist Church family (where Kerr was a member) and many other church families in the surrounding area. An amazing group of friends, school and community members have all celebrated Kerr. We are grateful that he was welcomed to heaven by the loved ones that preceded him in death; Paternal Great Grandfather Merle Harp, Paternal Grandparents Jack and Elizabeth Ballard, Maternal Great Grandparents Jesse and Anna Pence, Clarence and Eileen Shepherd and Velma and Percy Wahl and a Maternal Cousin Oakley Cooper.

Most importantly the family wants to express that there truly is no way to organize enough words on paper to adequately reflect the life of Kerr, the most amazing young man. Wes and Lori are simply humbled to have been chosen as his parents; and while they're utterly broken they're grateful that he returned to be with his Savior on July 13, 2021.

A funeral service will be held 2:00 p.m. Sunday, July 18, 2021, at Cornerstone Baptist Church in Winchester with interment in Manchester City Cemetery. A visitation will be held 2:00 p.m. until 6:00 p.m. Saturday, July 17, 2021, at the church. Memorials are suggested to the Kerr Ballard Memorial Fund.

“ Lori, Wes, and your families. I cannot imagine what you are all going through, but my heart is broken too. There is no answer why such a wonderful, bright light with such promise should be snuffed out so very young. Hold tight to the faith young Kerr believed in so strongly, and to each other. May each day get easier for you, and I'm sure Ruby will be a great comfort. May the Lord grace you with peace as you go through what is probably the most difficult time in any of your lives. You have my most sincere condolences and prayers.

“ Wes and Lori,
I am at a loss to find words to express the sadness I feel for your family. I cannot begin to know the depth of your pain, but I do know Almighty God will lead you through it, and there will be brighter days in the future. Have faith.

“ Looking Everywhere

I looked for you in the house,
Traces of you were everywhere,
But you weren't there.

I looked for you among the flowers
Placed around your earthly shell with care,
But you weren't there.

I looked for you at the graveside,
While at a flower draped casket I stared,
But you weren't there.

Then I looked inside my heart,
In my memories that lay bare,
And with warmth, I found you there.

But if some day my memories fade,
No matter how much I care,
And I can no longer find you there,

I'll know that when I leave this world,
And reach Heaven's realms so fair,
Once again, I will look, and I will find you there.

“ Wes, Lori, and family-
Praying that the pain you are feeling now will soften with each passing day. Hold onto those sweet memories Kerr has given you.
May the love and support of family and friends help ease the sorrow and give you strength to get through this most difficult time.
Our thoughts and prayers are with you.

“ We never met Kerr, but he sounds like an amazing young man. Our heart breaks for your family, & will keep you in our prayers.

Dan & Karen Pence - July 15 at 07:02 PM

“ Lori, Wes, Ruby, and all family, we are deeply heartbroken for you. Words fail, emotions soar, and our imaginations cannot understand the sheer grief you are enduring.
Thank God for His immeasurable peace and comfort. The hope of eternity we have in Christ guarantees a not so distant future with Kerr.
We didn't personally know Kerr well, but your description of him made us feel as though we did. We did watch his mini-messages during Covid that he did. What a blessing to all!
We don't grieve as the world who has no hope, but we still grieve and please know we are constantly thinking of you and praying peace over you.
As soon as we heard of the accident, Earl and I prayed for you all immediately and since have continued to pray for God's comfort and peace to flood you all. We will not cease in praying for you for the many days to come.

"Now, may the Lord himself, the Lord of peace, pour into you his peace in every circumstance and in every possible way. The Lord's tangible presence be with you all." 2 Thessalonians 3:16 TPT

“ I never knew this young man, but saw him once or twice and thought, “I’d have loved to have that young man in my classroom, when I taught school. It saddens me that he has left us and gone to be with the Lord so soon. May God bless, comfort strengthen and keep His arms around you in this time of great grief.
