“ Love, respect, and friendship are the words I think of when I think of Larry. From the beginning of my first steps with Christ you were there. You demonstrated christianity at it's finest in our imperfect world and I am so grateful I could call you my friend. I don't know which I will miss more - the bear hugs or that throaty laugh. It's very rare to be smiling and crying at the same time but you were a rarity so I guess it's fitting when saying goodbye.

“ We grew to love Larry,through the years of knowing "loveable Larry",as we at FCC fondly called him!!
Such a character,yet beyond that Marine shell, was a heart of love for the Lord; a caring devoted spirit to shine a light for other to know HIM!! Always"borderline great"was his byline--and now--Home free in the arms of the Lord; NO more battles to fight!
Dance away Larry & enjoy the Life of Eternity! There will be an empty spot here.
