“ I have known Sandra all of my life, as she was my cousin. She was kind and caring. Always smiling and enjoyed life and the lives around her of her loved ones. If you needed help she would help you if at all possible. She was faithful and committed in all she did and when you became her friend you were a lifetime friend. Sandra will be missed by many friends and family members. My love and sympathies go out to Frank and Koal and Johnny and Jessica and their families.
