“ It came as a big shock to hear of Allison's passing. I send my condolences to her family. Especially her mom Jennifer. Allison and I called each other Babooski. It was a cute nickname she made up. The last time I saw her, it was 2015 and we ate at Buffalo Wild Wings. She brought me three pregnancy tests after joking on Facebook with friends. A few months later, I found out I was expecting. Now I have a handsome, 11 month old son. I remember celebrating her birthday, just the two of us. We ate a mini cheesecake. It was awesome and I really enjoyed it. Allison was bright, kind, creative, sweet, passionate, and so much more. I love you Ally Kat.

“ I spent time as Allison's mentor 6 years ago. Her light shines so brightly. No matter her own struggles, she always gave her time and energy toward helping others. She has touched the lives of many and will be greatly missed.

“ I met Allison @Insight in 2015 and Wow am I grateful I did! She was such a marvelous light and bundle of joy and I will NEVER forget how she transformed me into a zombie for the premiere of The Walking Dead out of stuff she found in the apartment! I always tell TWD fans about that day and it will stay with me for the rest of my life. Rest in paradise. -Ang W.

“ Allison was my treatment "granddaughter" and her laugh and willingness helped me and so many others. Lots of us who couldn't attend her service held our own private memorials by lighting candles and playing Christmas music in her honor.

I hope knowing how loved she is will give you some comfort.

“ I worked with Allison for almost a year, she loved all of her clients and had such passion and love. She once locked her keys in her car and I brought them to her, right afterwards I jumped a cement block and got stuck. We had a great laugh together. Fly high beautiful ❤️
