

Barbara Eileen Taylor

February 16, 1964 - June 29, 2024

Barbara E. Taylor, 60, of Jacksonville passed away Saturday, June 29, 2024, at Prairie Village in Jacksonville. She was born, Feb. 16, 1964, in Centralia, the daughter of Robert W. and Barbara A. Raines Taylor.

Surviving is her mother, Barabara of Jacksonville; companion, Michael Hall of Jacksonville; stepchildren, Adam Coats of Danville and Cheyenne Miller of AR; 3 step grandchildren; brother, Todd Taylor of Jacksonville; nieces, Adrienne Austin, Selena Taylor and Penelope Hinders and nephews, Lee Taylor and Denver Hinders. She was preceded in death by her father, Robert.

Barb enjoyed reading, listening to Bon Jovi and watching the HGTV channel. She had a love for elephants.

A private family service will be held at a later date. Daws Family Funeral Home in Jacksonville is in charge of arrangements.

Tribute Wall

BW

“ Friend it’s taking me awhile I miss you so much thing will never be the same again so I try to hold our memories we had at heart frm the day we meet to our last good by whether we at work or not those memories I hold dear like the time we made your stalker mad at work cuz we switched up on him oh man he was so mad he didn’t wanna look at me or me take his order did we laugh so hard bout that or the time you came to my rescue when a certain some one show up there our lil joke I will forever love you Mrs barb u was truly a good woman ps I’m still running from cats in the window

Bell Wilson - July 07, 2024 at 12:12 PM

TS

“ God Bless You, and All of Your Precious Loved ones Always Kiddoe , May The Lord Jesus Christ keep His Hedge of protection on each of You Always , and May He Fill each Heart with His Love - Mercy - Grace - Compassion, and His Perfect Peace that surpasses all understanding Always , Looking forward to seeing you again one day my precious friend, , in Jesus name I pray , Amen , a nd Amen ...
❤️🙏🏻🇺🇸💖🌟🌟😊🙌🏻: 1:

Tony Sanders - July 06, 2024 at 06:48 AM

KL

“ I love Barb. She was friendly and funny and outgoing. I’m so sorry she’s passed on. You are so right that heaven got an angel with her. May your memories keep her close to you always.

Kathy Lacey - July 04, 2024 at 02:23 PM

SJ

“ I first met Barb whe we first moved to Meredosia. She was very nice to me and I knew no one. She had dogs so that made her a good person to me. I found her again on fb after her house got sold because the bridge went in so they moved to Jacksonville. I popped in to see her once in a while at Burger King. She was a really great lady.

Sherry Jones - July 01, 2024 at 06:02 PM