“ When we were growing up we spent a lot of time with the Bangert cousins down in Naples at our grandma and grandma Albers. One summer my brother Dick and Daryl got sent to the chicken house to collect eggs for Gramma. One of them dropped an egg and the egg throwing began. They broke all the eggs and a lot of it the mess got on the chicken house. My grandma took great pride in her chicken house and she was furious. She made them wash the entire chicken house. Whenever you got the Albers and Bangert cousins together, trouble usually followed them, especially Daryl and Dick. RIP “Cous”.
