“ Willa and Family; So sorry to hear about David. I have some good childhood memories of David and your family. He was always such a hard working, easy going guy. May God grant you peace in this time of sorrow.

Will never forget that he liked to call me a pollock as a joke. Dave was a good man and a good father. He will be sadly missed by all. Until we meet again some day!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!

“ Dave had the biggest laugh I ever heard. He didn't do it often but when he laughed it made a joyous noise that touched everyone that heard it.

“ I will always remember he used to come over to granny's for coffee all the time and see him come up the drive in good ole Dally Up and we would always sit around and chat about whatever! Then, of course us "kids" as he used to call us would always get picked on by him. You know what they say "if we didnt love you we wouldnt be picking on you" so i know that he loved us all! You will be missed dearly!
