“ I was there for you from the very beginning, however soon as I leave town to go to get my life together. I have no words, a deep profound guilt riddles me just like it did to her. The company she kept certainly didn't help, I wish I could go to the service however the clowns there would wanna see my in that casket with her. Love you delainey always have and always will

“ I’m going to miss you everyday, Dee. You were an amazing, bright, beautiful force to be reckoned with. You were independent and you were tough but you were so genuine and loved so hard. I’m going to miss so many things about you; the way you didn’t care what people thought about your unique perspectives, how absolutely LOUD we could get together, your sense of humor, your maniacal laugh after doing something you knew I thought was silly, but most of all I’m going to miss Knowing I had you on my team for life. You were a bright part of my day any time I saw you, you could always make me laugh. The first time I met you, before even saying hello, you stuck your head into my Chevy s10 and asked to get in and play some music and I agreed because immediately, your soul made my soul happy. I’m so glad you don’t have to suffer another day here, I know you’re at peace, finally and with the people you love. Thanks for making me happier in this life and continuing to in memories. Ill see you one day, until then I’ll keep giving them hell for you.
