

Denny "Dangerous" Davis

October 9, 1961 - September 20, 2014

Denny (Dangerous) E. Davis, 52, of Naples, and formally of Valley City, IL passed away September 20, 2014 peacefully in his sleep.

Visitation will be held from 12:00 to 2:00 on September 23, 2014 at Mackey Daws Funeral Home in Bluffs, IL.

Funeral services will be at 2:00 then we will proceed to Blue River Cemetery in Detroit, IL to lay Denny to rest beside his father, Franklin (Baldy) D. Davis. Pastor David Reid will be officiating the service. There will be a gathering following the burial at the Senior Citizens Hall in Bluffs, IL.

Denny was born in Wood River, IL October 9 1961. He graduated from Meredosia High School. Denny enjoyed spending time with his family and friends and loved children and pets. He enjoyed fishing, shelling, ginsenging, and just simply enjoying the little things in life. He was always independent as he needed nothing but the bare necessities. He did not like to be called Dennis because he would say "that's what mom calls me when I'm in trouble."

Denny is survived by his mother, Loretta M. Jackson, stepfather, Merle H. Jackson, brothers, Frank Davis Jr, (wife, Tracy), Anthony Davis (wife, Mary), Randy Davis and Eddie Davis.

Sisters, Brenda Davis, Shelia VanHyning (husband, Steve), Lila Davis, Sandy Westfall (husband, Michael), and Melanie Jackson, 16 nephews and 9 nieces. He was preceded in death by his father, Franklin (Baldy) D. Davis.

We would like to thank family and friends for all of the support and memories created. A very special thanks to Denny's niece, Heather McMillen for opening her heart and home in the last hours of his life.

Any donations may be given to the family to help with funeral expenses.
