“ I will never forget one time I had to show Donna a bruise I had on my leg and could show only by pulling my pants down so down they came and she told me I must be related to the Boots cuz I wasn't modest. I love you very much and I will see you in my heart and dreams

“ I am deeply sorry for the loss of Donna. I worked with her for years at The Kottage Kafe and she was a sweet and caring lady who was always eager to share her cooking skills with our lil gang at Normas place. God Bless all of you at this difficult time

“ Donna, I always meant to come by and visit, seems like I was always busy. You are in Heaven with my Mom and Dad and many others who loved you. I will always remember how kind and loving you were. Even though I didn't get by to see you , you were always in my heart and on my mind. Heaven has taken another wonderful Angel.
