He then went to work as a maintenance man for Shop-Ko. He left Shop-Ko and retired to Prairie Village Healthcare in 2009. He made many new friends and came to think of his caretakers as family. He will be remembered by residence and staff as a loving, helpful and happy man.

Ed walked through life with a strong faith and great love for his family. He was always a strong man with a soft heart. He loved family gatherings, singing with the kids, camping and in recent years taking long rides in the car. He smiled and laughed easily even to the end of his battle with Alzheimer's.

“ I remember the years of "hog roasts" at your house and all of us kids sleeping in 1 bedroom. Your dad was always smiling. Loved those times growing up. My thoughts and prayers are with you girls and your families. Love you all.
