“ So sorry to hear of your loss. Evelyn was a great person. I always enjoyed seeing her in the drug store when I worked there when I was in high school. She would come in for a coke on her break from work, and would always sit on the same stool at soda fountain. Winchester has lost a lot of great people in the past few months.

“ Evelyn was my daughter Lydia's Sunday school teacher for a few years. Lydia loved her so!! She was so good at making little bean bags out of fabric that she even made my whole prek class one (20 kids). They thought they were the greatest things ever!!! We are sorry for your loss and she will be a loss to the community! Bless her!!

“ Dear Priscilla, Mary, Edwin, and other members of the family, Evelyn and Ed were good friends of my parents, Abner and Margaret Day, and in my parents' later years became an important part of their support network. This was especially valuable since I am an only child and live 900 miles away. Particularly in the years after my mother's death in 1998, Evelyn visited my father frequently, took him to appointments, kept an eye on his medical care, and kept me well informed. And Ed took good care of their home in the years after Dad could no longer live there. I shall always be grateful to both of them, and I am so glad that I was able to visit Evelyn just a few days before her final illness.
