“ Frank became a father like to me . His Daughter Peggy is my best friend and introduced me to her dad he was kind and funny and became instantly my second dad . I showed him a beer can man and he took it apart and started making them . They were great fun . He made his soda can airplanes and different chimes . I will miss you Frank . Thank you and Peggy for being so kind to me .

“ Thanks for sharing this, Ivan. We knew Frank for only a short time, but we are glad for the memories of his and Peggy's time at Dauphin Island.
