“ We are so very sorry and sad for your family experiencing the sorrow of such a huge loss with the death of Gary. Even though you all take great comfort in the assurance he is now in the arms of his Savior, Jesus Christ, it does not diminish the sadness of not having him with you like you have been used to all of these years. He is, however, in your midst saying “we will see each other soon!” As you are very aware, Gary was such a intricate part of his church family as well as the community where he shared his faith with many who took the time to let him minister encouragement and the love of God to them. (He did to members of our family on many occasions during our time in Manchester.) He left an indelible impression on more individuals than you even know. And now he receives his reward in his eternal home!

“ I knew Garry from ISVI. He was such a great person, and in later years it was always a bright spot in the day when I saw Garry in Jacksonville, perhaps at Walmart, and stopped to visit. My condolences to his family and his many other friends.

“ Garry was in my second grade classroom at Winchester Grade School. He was such a sweet boy and always kind to the other students who were all intrigued with his Braille typewriter and that he did his schoolwork in Braille. I know you will miss him terribly. I am so sorry for your loss.
