

James Edward Cockerill

September 28, 1936 - August 20, 2012

James Edward Cockerill, 75, of Winchester passed away Monday, Aug. 20, 2012 at the Passavant Area Hospital in Jacksonville. He was born Sept. 28, 1936 in Scott County. Jim was the son of James Alfred and Mildred Marie Hester Cockerill. He married Barbara Sadler July 7, 1956 in White Hall. She survives in Winchester.

Also surviving are three children, Michael Shawn (wife, Kristine) Cockerill of Winchester, Tara Sue (husband, Danny) Moore of Winchester and Jana Marie (husband, Barry) Hassebrock of Bunker Hill; eight grandchildren, Jessica (companion, Sam Ford) and Jerry Moore, and Leah, Camden and Maggie Cockerill, Jeremy, Kurtiss, and Lauren Hassebrock; one brother, Robert Lee (wife, Sharon) Cockerill of Winchester; and one sister, Donna Mae Cockerill of Riggston.

James was a retired Air Force veteran. He owned and operated Cockerill's Garage in Winchester from 1975 until retiring in 1988. He was a member of the Lions Club, Volunteers of America, Shriners International, Masons, Elks, and the American Legion. He was of the Methodist faith. James enjoyed traveling and did so much of his life. For fourteen years he traveled and volunteer in federal and state parks as he and Barb made their way around the country. He loved his Dobermans. He was a devoted family man who was dedicated to his loving family.

A celebration of life will be held Thursday evening from 5:00 until 7:00 p.m. at the Mackey Daws Funeral Home in Winchester. Memorials are suggested to the Wounded Warriors or the Shriners Hospitals for Children.

“ *Mike and Family,
So sorry to hear about your fathers passing. He was a great man, and whether or not he realized it he helped me out more than I could have ever thanked him for during a time in my life I needed it.
You all will be in our prayers*
