

James "Jim" Frank McCormick

February 7, 1946 - July 14, 2018

James "Jim" McCormick, 72, of Hillview lost his battle to cancer, Saturday, July 14, 2018, at Memorial Hospital surrounded by his children and brother. He was born, Feb. 7, 1946, the son of James L. and Louise A. Munsell McCormick.

He leaves behind three children, J.D. McCormick, Malinda (Shaun) Tannahill and Bradley (Angelina) McCormick; eight grandchildren, Joel, Ali, Dylin, Jacob, Audrey, Madie, Izzy and Quinn and brother, Gary McCormick.

Jim was a US Navy veteran, who served in the Vietnam war. He enjoyed tinkering on anything with a motor. He had a great sense of humor and loved joking around. He loved his friends and family.

Jim requested to be cremated with no funeral services.

Tribute Wall

“ James "Jim" Frank McCormick

January 28, 2023 at 11:11 AM

“ Went to grade school with Jimmie, we used to trade our lunch box sandwiches with each other.....He had fried egg sandwiches and I had jelly sandwiches and we would swap, I always called him "Jimmie the egg" because he had my favorite sandwich. I knew his father well and they were good people and worked hard on the farm. Sorry to hear of his passing. I just pray that he knew Jesus Christ personally, as I would love to see him again
JOHN 14 Verse 6 Dr Larry E. Sherwin

Dr Larry Sherwin - July 19, 2018 at 04:02 PM

“ Such a great friend! We have laughed together, weathered the storm together, and for that I am grateful. Condolences to family, remember the good times.

Penny Shafer - July 19, 2018 at 07:39 AM

“ when they were courting hehehe drank alot of beer

your dad drank jim beam. i can remember your dad coming in to meet eva with his hair all slicked back and his fufu juice on i'd pester him and say i didnt know you could clean up that good. went to cards game with them. we all had alot of fun.

sherrie krueger - July 16, 2018 at 04:10 PM