“ The greatest memory I have is when I very first meet Sister Jane. It was at a Revival at Nortonville, I was greeting people as they came in. This young lady was making her way with the aide of her daughter. You could tell she had some health issues but she had the biggest, warmest smile on her face. Instead of me greeting her she greeting me from 25 feet away. You could tell she was a child of GOD. I shook her hand and one could just feel the presence of Almighty GOD with this young lady. That was the first time I had ever meet Sister Jane but it was like that every time I seen her whether out and about or at church, she was the same. I would like to Thank her for all her service to The LORD and her prayers and support to all others that try to serve The LORD as well.

“ As most of you know, Aunt Jane was one of the most thoughtful people on this planet. She was the kind of person that if you were fortunate enough to meet and befriend her, she valued that friendship and it showed. Friendship was a life-long commitment to her and she was quick to send cards and stay in touch.

Now if you're family, like myself, you know we were the "luckiest" or most blessed of all. She had a contagious laugh and liked to tease in a fun way. Long ago she use to call me "the artist" because when I was a kid staying all night with my cousin, Lea Anne, I told her that was what I planned to be when I grew up. I loved hearing the story where she teased my cousin, Jamey, by waving her hands wildly at him from behind the steering wheel of her parked car...purposely making a scene to embarrass him. Simply put, she was fun!

Aunt Jane "wore many hats", but one of her favorites was that of Mother. She was 100% devoted to her children, Paul and Lea Anne, and she loved them with every fiber of her being. She had a sweet spirit and a loving heart that she shared freely with all of us. I cannot convey with words how much she will be missed. Our comfort comes in knowing she is with Jesus...and knowing her...she's started making plans already for a spectacular family reunion when we meet again because she always liked a good party.

With love,
Her niece, Kim Pate

“ My love and many prayers go out to the entire family. Jane was a very dear lady. Lea Anne has been a life long friend and I pray she and Paul are comforted in knowing their Mom was loved. God Bless you in your time of loss. With deepest sympathy, sincerely Pastor Becky "McKinnon" Bourne.

“ I met Jane and Lea Anne around four years ago. Both are two of kindest people I have ever met. Both always cheery and nothing but good to say.

God Bless Jane and we know she is in Heaven with God. And God bless Lea Anne and help her through this very difficult time.

It was certainly my pleasure in getting to know the both.
