“ *I was always happy to see Jeff come to my house, it meant smiles and laughter. When he was around us he was a happy, fun man. He dearly loved his children and parents, talking of them often. Jeff I never thought you would have had thoughts of doing this, I wish we could have talked first.

“ One of my best memories of Jeffrey was on a float trip on the current river.he picked one of the highest cliffs we seen the whole trip to jump off of.when he hit the water he had a hard time breathing but he was faking cause he just busted out laughing at us for being concerned.he was crazy like that.I'm gonna miss ya man!

“ to the family of Jeffrey Thomas--I think of all of you so many times a day. Jeffrey was a good kid. I can think of no greater loss than that of a child, and you have had to do it twice. you are always in my prayers.
