“ Kelley, Vanessa and I are saddened to hear of Joe's passing. He was such a good man. He had that ornery little smile, especially when he was winning my chips in a poker game. He will be missed.

“ My condolences for the loss of a kind, considerate man. Joe repaired several of my home appliances. He impressed me as a very honest man who did his job with pride and professionalism. He also loved dogs.

“ So sorry for loss of such a good and humble man. I knew Joe through Trones too but also through my dad, Merle Scott, the other Maytag man 😊

“ I was a 19 year old college student at Millikin University in Decatur. My parents and family were still overseas so I spent the summer in 1976 down on thr farm with my Uncle Herschel Carriger, who was my dad's brother, my Aunt Norma Carriger and their kids, including Joe Carriger. I was pretty green, knew nothing about farming and it showed. I was impressed that Joe, who was only 14 at the time, could drive a tractor pulling a wagon stacked with bales if hay. To a city-slicker like me I thought that was pretty cool. I remember Joe being really low-key, friendly and easy going. Joe got me in the tractor's seat and patiently explained how to drive it. Joe was confident , not cocky; very encouraging and soon I was actually driving a tractor! Thank you Joe for helping me get my feet wet and start to fit in!

Joe was THE reason we bought 7 appliances where he was employed. He was not only capable, competent and efficient but had an attitude and personality that matched his abilities. We will miss you Joe.
