“ I was truly saddened to hear this. I knew Joe from school and ran into him several times over the years. Prayers for comfort for his friends and family.

“ It saddened me to get the news of Joes passing. As soon as Brenda told me I said a prayer and then asked my husband, Larry, to make sure he greets Joe with a good cup of coffee, which they both enjoyed. My condolences to his family and hope that the memories they have of Joe will comfort them during this difficult time. Rest in peace dear nephew.

Love,
Aunt Audrey

“ Joe was a very nice guy, we had a lot of good times and fun bowling, he was with me when a beautiful big dog ran out across the street in front of me, it instantly passed away, even though I was not going very fast! I was devastated and got out to check on the dog, the family was right behind the dog and saw it run out from behind a car! Joe was there to hug me and tell me it wasn't my fault, that he had not seen it run out either, I was always so thankful Joe was with me that day! RIP
