

Joseph "Vernon" Vedder

November 27, 1948 - April 10, 2019

Joseph "Vernon" Vedder, 70, of Murrayville, died Wednesday, April 10, 2019, surrounded by family and friends. He was born, Nov. 27, 1948, in Jacksonville, the son of Joseph Franklin and Ruth Ella Vedder.

He is survived by two sons, Justin (Ashley) Vedder of Laguna Niguel, CA and Joshua (Cari) Vedder of Mission Viejo, CA; one daughter, Sarah (Logan) Crum of Murrayville; seven grandchildren and one sister, Lynn (Chris) Holzner of Holland, PA. He was preceded in death by his parents and brother, Mark Vedder.

Vernon graduated from Jacksonville High School in 1966. He served in the US Army defending his country in the Vietnam War. After serving his country, he farmed in the Murrayville and Jacksonville area for 12 years. Vernon and family moved to Colorado and then to Southern California where he was a real-estate appraiser for 25 years before retiring and moving back to Murrayville. He was an avid sports fan and a member of the Elks lodge. He is lovingly remembered for his infectious smile and devotion to his friends and family.
