Judy loved watching birds, her Aunts/Cousins lunch group, shopping for her family, listening to Willie Nelson, and helping those who needed help. Most of all, she cherished her family, always leading a smile and some words of wisdom. Her husband, Marc, was her compass, providing direction, and the grandchildren were her lighthouse over the last many years, continuously

“ Judy was such a lovely person. I met her when we both worked at CSC. Not only was she an outstanding worker, she made me laugh every day. No matter how grueling the task at hand, Judy could always lighten the load with her humor. She will be missed. Suzy Webb

“ I have a sad heart with the passing of Judy this past week. She was not just my sister n Law but a very special friend. Judy's family was the dearest part and greatest love of her life. They always came first in everything and knowing she would be leaving them to soon was something she feared. Now as we know, she is watching her family coping with her absence but knowing that life does go on and that one day you will all be joined together again. Only our precious "Lord" knows what the future holds and its trusting in him and what he has in store for the future that will get you through this. Keep your faith in "Him" and keep your memories close in your heart. Those memories are what will get you through the difficult days ahead. If there is anything I can do for you don't hesitate to let me know. My love to you all. Toni
