“ It still doesn't seem real. I will miss talking on the phone to u about my scentsy problem..lol I will miss coming in the truck stop just to chat. The kids were just talking the other day about how you use to watch them when they were little. Or me and you talked once about how it would be funny if your son and my daughter would get married when they were older and we'd be family...lol We will miss you so much, and will never forget you and the boys..<3 <3

“ To you, Nancy, and all your family. I am so sorry for the loss of Kayla and her two boys. I remember her as having such a spunky and joyful spirit that even life's occasional troubles didn't keep her down for long. She and I shared a lot of memories from our time together at WHS. I didn't figure out until this morning that she was your Kayla. My mother's heart aches for you. We have a long history, you and I, and if you want to just visit some time and share memories, we could do that. I will miss the services because I am out of town until July 14 but my thoughts, prayers and much love are being sent your way. Sandra Sheppard Carpenter
