“ I loved Kelly. I loved the innocence about her. I love how pure hearted she was. I absolutely loved her non-filter!! She loved and cared for her family. She held tight to good memories from her past. especially those with her mom who she missed every day since she was taken to heaven. Kelly was my best friend's little sister. Every time I was in her presence she made me laugh. We would sometimes communicate through messenger in the last couple years. She would send me silly things to make me laugh. Goofy things about parrots because we all know she loved her birds. Funny things about kids, the holidays, gutting splitting laughter videos. And she even sent me a goofy picture of her with some kind of face mask on for a brain scan. It was like a hockey mask. She found it hysterical. I would share comforting prayers. Funny videos to her that I thought she would like and it was so nice to reach out across the miles and have a connection. With everything she went through she was so strong and amazing. And like me, she has made the most amazing friends she considered family. I know Kelly's in heaven with no pain and surrounded by God's love. My deepest sympathies go out to her family and friends. I am sending you love and prayers.
God's blessing to you all,
Kathleen Doran

Kelly was my childhood friend, as we both attended Riverdahl Elementary School...she lived right down the street from me and we played a lot together. We moved in 5th grade to Iowa, but I always remembered our friendship. Love & Light Kelly ♡ {{{hugs}}} to your family, Gwen Deming
