“ My condolences to the Pate Family as I share your loss. Kimberly captured all my attention with her mind and intellect. Moving mountains was her daily feat - making not only her own life flow, yet guiding others to achieve the same. I'd not seen Kim in 26 years yet she's always been WITH ME for that I still use the lessons I'd gleaned. I'll also never forget saying to her "If you weren't in this chair, you'd never date a guy like me". Kim's quick retort was of the affirmative. She captivated every social gathering with her warm seductive manner - friendly smile - a wink - she had a way of drawing people in. My life's greatest fortune was to have known her. Again, condolences to all who had known her. Thanks again to her family for the loving graces they'd offered me when I was "in the scene". Life is a series of seasons and Kimberly will never be forgotten. Peace and Love.

She's been so instrumentally huge in my life - still. I could write volumes here. Rather chat over a brew some time if ever you're inclined. Again - condolences to Robbins, Hanna, - I have no words other than I share your loss. We're better for knowing her, that's assured.

“ Kimberly was one of the most incredible and amazing people I've ever had the good fortune of knowing. She was fearless, honest and authentic, and the world is now a lesser place for having lost her.

“ Kim and I became friends in high school, and I loved so much about her. She was fun, energetic, athletic, smart, and had a great sense of humor. She taught me to ride a horse, and also was there when one threw me off in the gravel road. I was terrified, but Kim knew what to do. We painted the roof on the pig shed together, and I had so much fun with her. I mostly remember that she was very present when I was with her. I have not been in Kim's life for decades now as I live far away. But I know she accomplished much in her time here, and I am no surprised by the mutal affection people have for Kim. I admired her too. I remember also, that her family adored her, her mom and dad, and her brother. I think that is notable. Your family is my prayers, and I know now that she is now in a glorified body, one without pain or limits, and in the presence of her Savior. I hope that is of some comfort to you all. With gratitude for knowing such an amazing person.

“ Condolences to the family. I had the honor of working with Kim at the mental health agency. She was the most gifted counselor I had ever met. As a professional her insight and good humor was a blessing. She was a great help to our clients who had the good fortune of working with her. She will be missed. Blessings and comfort.

“ Kim was one of my favorite young people from west fair Christian academy . Since she was 14 or so . I was at the hospital the night of the wreck that took her mobility but not her beauty or smile . I went to her apartment years ago in Fort Lauderdale Florida and spent the better part of an afternoon catching up. I will always remember her as perky ,happy young lady that always made my day brighter and that was after her wreck . May god bless her family in the loss they have now but will gain back in the twinkling of an eye when we join her in heaven. Jim and jean cook
