“ I first met Larry when he was custodian at Grace Church. I remember him sitting in the Kitchen reading the paper while taking a coffee break. We would visit and kabitz and have maintained an acquaintance since. I have known Stella for many more years and was happy that they found each other and always seemed comfortable with each other and their life together. Whenever I saw Larry he always seemed glad to see me as I was glad to see him again. I am very glad that I knew Larry and I wish that all that all who loved him find peace and God's blessings as you remember him.
