“ Patsy and children and all the family,
I can only imagine how heavy your hearts are for the loss of your beloved husband, father and grandfather. he was such a gentle, warm, wonderful man and I especially enjoyed playing Euchre with him on Thursday nights at RRR. He will surely be missed by so many people. I know if I return to RRR in the future that I will miss him terribly. Take care and God Bless. You children take care of MOM, she is one in a million too.
Regards,
Dave and Fay St. Onge

“ We loved playing 31 with Jr .
A favorite comment would be "who's Jr going to through his cap at tonight" If he lost and had to pay, that was the fit her through. Really going to miss him
