

Louise Proffer

March 18, 1926 - January 5, 2015

Louise Proffer, 88, of Roodhouse passed away Monday, January 5, 2015 at her home. She was born March 18, 1926 in Roodhouse, the daughter of Frank E. and Avel Tucker Jackson. She married Richard Proffer in April of 1947. He preceded her in death.

Surviving are four children, Tom (Alice) Proffer of Bradenton, FL, David (Janet) Proffer of Jacksonville, Jill (Allen) Zupanci of Hillview, and Jan (Mike) Schnelten of Carrollton; grandchildren, Jeff Proffer Roberts, Juwana Dennis, Brian (Kari) Schnelten, Tiffany (J.J) Jones, Tommy (Dawn) Proffer, T.J (Courtney) Proffer, and Adam Zupanci; and great grandchildren, Bella and Rhett Roberts, Michael Jr. and Alexis Dennis, Chase and Gabe Schnelten, Avel Jones, and Mason Proffer. She was preceded in death by a son, Tracy Proffer; brother, Kenneth "Blackie" Jackson, and sister, Eileen Smock.

Louise retired from Roodhouse Envelope Company after 25 years, and later from the Roodhouse Police Dept. after 8 years. She loved sitting on her yard swing, visiting with friends and family, and watching cars drive by on the highway. Most of all she loved her family.

Graveside services will be held 11:00 a.m. Monday, Jan. 12, 2015 at the Fernwood Cemetery in Roodhouse. The family will meet friends after the services at "Mom's" house at 508 Briggs Ave in Roodhouse. The Daws Family

“ I wish we had a family tree, or maybe someone does. My mom was Virginia McLaughlin Norman Likes who passed away in March of 2013. She lived in Winchester. I remember her speaking of Blackie Jackson and Louise. (Cousins I believe) Mother's Mother was Lucille Fry.

We miss these people who tell us stories of our families and explain the relationship.
