“ Marjorie was a big part of my memories, especially as a teenager! There was a lot of time spent going with Patti and her folks to St. Louis or Springfield. I remember trips to the Western Illinois Fair, church revivals too. New Year Eve's when Darrell and Marjorie went with Joe and Ercilia(as Marjorie said) out for the evening. I remember them going square dancing. Marjorie was my transportation to and from Winchester for a couple summers for a job. Of course the stories my Mom has told of their adventures. I can close my eyes and see the house(even with the stories of snakes in the laundry room). I even visited when Patti wasn't home! Favorite memory! Patti and I thought we ruined some copper bottomed pans when Marjorie was gone, we were making popcorn balls. We both called our Grandmothers to see what to do, we didn't want to get in trouble! Enjoy being with Darrell again!
