“ To family and friends my condolences of the loss of a great man. For me, Marty was a high school friend that I wanted to be like. Today I feel the loss of a man who was kind, gentle, and helpful when I was in school. He will be missed.

“ Marty was a loving and caring and sharing friend. He gave us a Rose of Sharon bush that we planted in our front yard last fall. He quite often shared at Saturday Morning Men's Prayer Group his concerns for his family and was always eager to know what other's needed in prayers . Marty was a Brother in Christ. We have been blessed. He has been part of our lives at First Christian Church, Via de Christo, and Jacksonville Lion's Club.
