“ I knew Mary mostly through being a Sunday regular at Main St. like my dad and me. We enjoyed seeing the same people each week. She was a dedicated friend to Violet and Shirley and I'm sure many others, often being the "chauffeur" to doctor appointments, church, lunch or wherever. She always had time to talk to me no matter where I saw her. She was dedicated to her family as well. I have missed seeing her since her health has kept her from being out and about. My sympathy goes out to her family, but I'm happy that Mary is breathing well and able to sing joyfully in the Heavenly choir. Love and prayers for all who love her.
