“ I'm very sorry to hear about the lose of Uncle Mel. I have heard many stories from my brothers, sisters, and even my mother Anna Mae of their memories of him. As kids taking trips to Chicago with my parents for family reunions, I was quite young and vaguely remember those days. I hope you all can find comfort that he is no longer suffering and his life in death should be a celebration of who Uncle Mel was and how he would most enjoy you to remember him. May you find peace that his is spirit will always be with you and that a smile comes to your face when you think of him!
