

Nestor Karim Delgado Jr.

September 6, 1996 - July 1, 2025

Nestor Karim Delgado Jr., 28, of Jacksonville, passed away Tuesday, July 1, 2025, at the University of Chicago Medical Center during a procedure for his congenital heart disease. He was born, September 5, 1996, in New Orleans. He was the son of Nestor K. and Myrtle Ann Hoover Delgado and married Megan Ryan, August 31, 2024, in Cancun, Mexico.

Nestor is survived by his wife, Megan of Jacksonville; parents, Nestor K. Delgado of Pascagoula, MS and Myrtle (Bruce Darby) Delgado of Bay St. Louis, MS; siblings, Anna Margaret Delgado and Augustine (Gus) Quintin Delgado; step brothers, Bradley (Portia) and Dylan Darby; maternal grandmother, Maragaret Ann Hoover; paternal grandmother, Sylvia Delgado; in-laws, Mark (Sherry) Ryan; brother-in-law, Dennis (Kayelyn) Ryan and several nieces, nephews, cousins, aunts, and uncles. He was preceded in death by baby, Nestor Karim Delgado, III, maternal grandfather, Dr. Jack C. Hoover, and paternal grandfather, Dr. Nestor F. Delgado.

Nestor is a 2015 graduate of Resurrection Catholic High School in Pascagoula, MS and a 2018 graduate of University of Mississippi in Oxford, MS. He earned his Juris Doctor from the University of Mississippi School of Law in 2021. He loved his job as a Legislative Liaison at the Illinois Office of the Attorney General and more recently, as a Cybersecurity Policy Advisor at the Illinois Commerce Commission. He also served as Chair on the Illinois's chapter of the American Heart Association.

Nestor loved his family, friends, two dogs (Nola and Madge), a good debate, and most of all, his wife, Meg. He also tolerated Meg's cat, Floof, who he secretly also loved. He was a lifelong learner with many interests such as woodworking, cybersecurity, politics, Marvel movies, and all things sports. He was an avid fan of the New Orleans Saints football team and the St. Louis City soccer team. He inspired others with his selflessness, positivity, intelligence, and passion for life. Most would describe Nestor as an advocate for those who needed a voice and as "one of the most genuine people you could know". Throughout his life, Nestor championed for cardiac research and support for others with similar conditions. Nestor enjoyed trying new restaurants and was an avid "foodie" who always known to say "I could eat". He also loved traveling to see new places and meet new people. Some of his favorite trips included China with his father and Poppa Jack, many locations throughout Europe during his study abroad program at the University of Cambridge in Cambridge, United Kingdom, and more recently, his wedding trip to Cancun, Mexico. While Nestor loved his childhood on the coast of Mississippi, especially his time on the water with family and friends, he found his home in the Midwest where he was instantly beloved by his Midwest family, friends, and colleagues. Over the past few days, we've realized how undeniable and far-reaching Nestor's im-pact has been on others and are forever grateful for all the love and support during this difficult time. To honor his legacy, we ask that loved ones "pay it forward" by incorporating Nestor's spirit of kindness and selflessness by trying to make the world a kinder place for all.

A visitation will be held 9:00 a.m. until 11:00 a.m. Saturday, July 12, 2025, at the Daws Family Fu-neral Home in Jacksonville. A memorial service will immediately follow at the funeral home. Memorials are suggested to the American Heart Association

Living out of town you really don't know what is going on where you lived unless somebody tells you . Little Nestor passed away in July I didn't know until today. Thoughts and Prayers for the family.. he's with Pappa Jack .. I remember him when he was younger coming up to the hospital with his Dad making rounds.. Beautiful soul RIP

“ As Nestor's elementary principal I was privileged to watch him learn and grow from age 3. He was smart and funny and best of all kind, loving and giving. He championed the cause of heart research from an early age and spoke to classes to encourage their support of our local heart walk each year. He was a friend to everyone he met. He was a selfless individual who always stood by those challenged by life's toughest times. He was a beloved member of our RCS family and his untimely passing is deeply felt by all of us who knew and loved him. My prayers go out for his precious wife, Meg, his mom, Myrtle, Dad, Nestor, sister Anna Margaret, brother, Gus and his dear grandparents. May he rest in peace 🙏🙏🙏💙💛

“ I’m so very sorry for your loss. Wishing you peace and healing.

It was a joy to spend a little time with Megan’s “Nesty.” Nestor immediately offered his warm smile and genuine enthusiasm for conversation, even with a group of folks he’d just met. I’ll remember and try to channel his gift for making people feel special.
