“ Whenever I heard her laugh, I couldn't help but smile. With her laughter, humor, and energy, she was a joy to talk to. She was such a sweet person. Our thoughts and prayers go out to the family.

“ My deepest and sincere sympathy to the children of Pat. I never will forget the day that Trish and I went to her house and she was trying to change lightbulbs in kitchen ceiling fan. She's not very tall and had a chair backed up to the table. She didn't attempt to get on it. When we walked through the door, she says, "I am so glad to see you! Change those bulbs for me, will you?" I just reached up and no problem, done. She's witty, smart, and always on the go. Heaven's gate is open and Carl is waiting. Peace be with you and your family, Karen.
