

Patrick J.K. Wright

January 24, 1944 - January 30, 2023

Patrick J.K. Wright lost his battle with the Empire on January 30th, 2023. He is being cremated like all other Jedi Masters before him.

Patrick was born January 24th of 1944 in Manhattan New York to Joseph and Ingobore (Listner) Wright. When Patrick graduated, he joined the Navy. Although he loved the Navy, due to an injury, his time was cut short with them. He became a truck driver after he returned home. He had many adventures and drove a semi up until 2022, when he was forced to retire due to an injury to his leg and finally settled down in Arenzville, IL. He loved everything: Star Wars, Horses, Woodworking, and being an all-around jokester. We all know Han shot first even though he went to his grave arguing with us daily about it.

He is survived by his wife Candy Wright of Arenzville IL, his son's Patrick Wright Jr (wife Melissa, grandson Kaleb) of Milton, VT, Michael Wright (grandson Alex) of Milton, VT, Dallas A. Davidson (fiancée Tabitha Brumbaugh) of Salisbury, Mo. also adopted sons: Daniel Hardwick (husband Bryan) of Shiloh, IL, Charlie Quarts of Rolla, Mo. and Tristian summers also of Salisbury, MO.

A celebration of life will be held at a later date. Daws Family Funeral Home in Jacksonville is in charge of arrangements.

Tribute Wall

“ Hope Courier lit a candle in memory of Patrick Wright

Hope Courier - February 08, 2023 at 06:09 PM