“ I am so sorry for your loss. I was fortunate to know and work with Pat for many years. I have the greatest respect for her. She loved her patients and worked hard to provide them with the very best care, always sharing a smile and her sense of humor. My boys, Brett and Cole, were the same ages and classmates as her grandsons, Levi and Kyle. She was so proud of them and all of her family. We always swapped stories on kids, would have a good laugh and shake our heads. She just always made me feel better. I know she is in heaven and at peace. To her family, you have our deepest sympathy. Patty, Brett, and Cole Bryant.

Jimmy, Mike, Randy and families, Albert, Ronnie, Steve, Debbie, Cathy, Mary Jane and families, we send our love to each of you during this difficult time. Pat was very kind and a beautiful person . We know how much she will be missed. The last time we saw her was Sept. 2017 at a birthday gathering and she hugged us so very tight and told us how much she had missed us. We have been praying and will continue now for each of you. Kenny and. Julie Moore, Joshua, Emily, Roman, Brandon, Kaleigh and Lindsay
