“ I have many memories of Pearl & Byron from my early childhood. They were my mom, Dianna Street Gerdes's, God parents and Chris is a close, lifelong friend of my mom. My Nana, Edna Street, lived just down and around the block from them and was always running back & forth between the two homes, playing with the Littig grandchildren, specifically April, Amber, Amanda & Aaron. There were also many rides with Pearl to church for Sunday School & Bible School. Pearl was always welcoming to me, as if I was just one of the grandkids! I am so sorry for your loss, please know I am praying for comfort for the family, as I know how you are feeling with just having lost my Nana in October.
