“ I meet Peggy when I came to Jacksonville to visit my grandmother Lillian Lamb. Lil and Peggy were friends for 40 years. Peggy and I became fast friends. I remember thinking how much I love her instantly with that wonderful smile and infectious laugh. My grandma and her spoke everyday until my grandmas passing. They loved each other fiercely!
Since then Peggy and I texted quite often and had plans to see each other again. I know how much she loved her family and I am so sorry for your loss.
I am glad that my grandma and her are back together gossiping and laughing.
