“ Our deepest condolences to you all. I have fond memories of the kindness that Bob did for me during the time between my being a student at ISU and going to work at Jacksonville High School in 1962. He and his family were great neighbors to my parents when they lived next door to them. (Everett and Mary Farmer). Peace be with you, Dean and MarySue Farmer.

Dean Farmer - January 29, 2022 at 10:32 AM

“ Lynda, Ruth Ann and I send prayers for peace and comfort for you and your entire family. Bob will be sorely missed by all, but especially by his fellow officers! RIP Bob!

“ Lynda and Family,

We were so sorry to hear about the passing of Bob. He was a great guy. He always liked to have conversations with mom at the reunions. Will be thinking and praying for you and your family for strength during this time.
