“ Through a mutual interest in old FARM Quarterly magazines, John Deere 20 Series tractors, and a love of farming, Bob and I became great friends over the last few years. He was a gentle spirit and a man of strong convictions, and we shared a belief that we both had been born 50 years too late. Though we never met in person, he could have been a long lost brother. Our loss is Heaven's gain. My family's deepest sympathies go out to Robert's family. GOD Bless his memory.

“ RW was what I called Bob most days when he would visit me at Casey's Store in Roodhouse where I worked part time several years ago. He was always so easy to talk to. Always spoke to me where ever I was at. Took time out to visit me at the house or on the phone. Such a polite, gentle, personable, wonderful friend, that made me a better person for having know him. RIP RW, you will be forever missed

“ We remember the day Bob was born and the many adventures through his school years. I am honored to say he was a student of mine and a good friend of Chris's as they went through school. Little league baseball is still a strong memory of their days together. Always a friendly word and seldom in a hurry. We grieve for a life too short but rejoice in the fact he is out of pain as he adjusts to his new home in Heaven. Our sympathy to the family. We will never forget Bob Young!
