“ I worked with Sally many years ago at JDC. She always was so upbeat and happy. I nicknamed her 'Blossom' because of it. Always so fresh, happy and enjoyed everything life seemed to bring along to her. And I loved to hear her laugh. Such a loud, raucous sound. Reminded me of crows!! But...I loved it because it was so like her. Unique and special. I would run into her here in town over the years since then and it was always the same. Smiling, happy....such a good person. She was a very special person and my life is better from having known her. And...I am sure that the next time I hear a crow screech...I'm gonna know it's Blossom laughing in heaven!!!
