

Sharon Anne Hale

July 23, 1944 - December 5, 2023

Sharon A. Hale, 79, of Bluffs passed away Tuesday, Dec. 5, 2023, at Blessing Hospital in Quincy. She was born July 23, 1944, in Schuyler County, the daughter of Wayne and Yvonne Cook Settles. She married Edward Thomas Hale, Feb. 2, 1964. He preceded her in death Nov. 12, 1985.

Surviving are daughters, Kim Hale and Angela Hale both of Bluffs; grandsons, Kyle (Jennifer) Andres of Chambersburg and Ethan (Miranda Barney) Hale of Bluffs; 5 great grandchildren; siblings, Jeannie (Herb) Stevenson of Camden, Jim (deceased wife, Lisa) Settles of Bluffs and Carol Settles of Rushville and many nieces and nephews. She was preceded in death by her twin sons, Anthony and Brett and siblings, George Settles, Joyce Gossage and Waynette Stults.

Sharon was well known for her great cooking, especially her fried chicken. She was one of the cooks at the original Boatel in Naples and some might have known her as a janitor at Bluff's school. She enjoyed bird and squirrel watching.

Cremation rights have been accorded. A celebration of life will be held at a later date. Daws Family Funeral Home in Jacksonville is in charge of arrangements.

“ I have not seen Sharon since 1962, but I sure remember her and her sweetness and also the humorous side of her! She was a positive source in a lot of negative times. Always smiling and fun! I am so sorry! I hope to see her one and talk about Home Ed class! Godspeed my friend and rest in loving peace! To Jeanne, Jim, and Carol God Bless You! Linda Bricker Sample “ Girls, I am really sorry for your loss. I served on the North Scott Fire Department with your dad and enjoyed some good times. I hired your mother as a janitor at school. She was a great person and had a wonderful personality. Always had a smile and a nice thing to say about everyone. She was a terrific person and will be missed. I feel lucky to have known your parents and could call them friends. God bless and you will remain in our prayers.
