“ We will miss seeing Sheila during her home visits and our conversations. Such a sweet caring person. I met her in 1996. Over the years we became good friends through the food program. I will cherish the time I got to spend with her each time she came. Prayers to her family who she always spoke so highly of every time we talked. RIP my friend. ❤️

“ I am so glad that Sheila passed peacefully surrounded by family. I remember her as always being a quiet childhood friend and neighbor. The only times she ever got into any trouble was because of something I had talked or led her into. Those were not really "bad" things. More on the order of going down to the creek when we both really knew we were supposed to stay in our yards. Nothing more than that but she would get punished. My guilt at having talked her into it was my greatest punishment. She never once blamed me though. She always had an inner sweetness about her that shown in her eyes. When Jay(JayJay) was born her maternal instincts really overtook all else. I'm sure she was a loving nurturing mother. My sincere condolences to her family. May she rest in the peace that she so greatly deserved. Ruth Ann McNeely, Dallas Texas

“ Sheila was a gentle, happy person with a laugh you could not help but join and one never to be forgotten. There was always plenty of laughter on one of our walks we took in the evenings around town. She tried her best to be a source of guidance to me in her gentle way, during a time of trouble in my life. You are so missed beautiful lady, and I hope you took all the love for you down here to Heaven with you.
