“ I miss you mom. I don't know how you did it - a house full of kids constantly not just yours either but you always seemed to enjoy it. You never yelled or got mad at us. We'd have 6 to 8 kids sitting around the kitchen table playing cards, you didn't mind and neither did dad. I don't even remember you getting mad at me when I was frying chicken for you and caught the kitchen cabinets on fire. You were the most loving and caring mom ever. You loved having your family close to you and with you as often as possible. I miss you telling me how much you love me. I got your "deer" message loud and clear - thank you! Please stay close!
