“ Eddie & Jeanette,

I am deeply sorry for your loss of Troy. Losing a child is a terrible tragedy in any circumstance. You are in my prayers. Troy was such a delight to talk with even though we didn't see each other often, especially after I left the area. He was generally joking and teasing when we did talk. My daughter, Kara, told me she remembers Troy taking my car keys when we were at IGA and hiding them from us. May God give you comfort in your sorrow.
