“ Remembering lots of shared Christmas celebrations, family dinners, chili and soup suppers playing cards at the kitchen table, bingo and cards in the basement, music at his house, at Bill's, and being at the cabin. He liked gooseberry pie, was fond of his Chapstick, enjoyed frequent new vehicles, and took an interest in all the kids in the family. When I was ready to leave on my honeymoon, he quietly slipped my husband some extra cash- a generous guy. When our daughter, Katie, was a little girl, she was visiting and saw he had a clear glass bird bank filled with quarters and told him, "I collect quarters!" What did he do but give the entire bank of quarters her to take home. I think it was about $25 dollars worth of quarters for little Katie for just saying she collected quarters! He always loved our Katie.

My Mother loved him like one of her sons and he knew it. When she passed I remember he grieved every bit as hard as her boys. He was always good to me as I was only a year older than Sharon so always around! He will be greatly missed by all the Piper siblings and spouses as he was one of them for 52 years!

“ My mom and dad spent so much time with Your folks and your Piper grandparents... MANY weekends in White Hall. Such sweet memories of them both. Their smiles both lit up a room. My prayers are with your family. May God hold you close, fill you with all the good memories and help you laugh at all the fun times. I pray He also puts to rest any sorrow and fills you with peace. In Jesus name. David and Rita (Becker) Gottfred
